The Court made the following :

ORAL JUDGMENT:

(per The Honourable Sri Devinder Gupta, the Chief Justice)

Appeal earlier was disposed of on 21.6.2004, which was restored by order passed in WAMP No. 2012 of 2004 on 5.8.2004. Today also, when the case is called, nobody is present on behalf of the appellants. It appears that appellants are no more interested in prosecuting the appeal. Moreover, the Writ Petition filed by the appellants questioning the proceedings dated: 13.11.2003 issued by the Commissioner of Endowment, was dismissed by the order impugned herein. By the said proceedings, the Executive Officer of the temple was permitted to enter into compromise by collection of Rs.40/- per sq. yard by the applicant registering the land by the Executive Officer, who was permitted to withdraw the cases. The learned Single Judge observed that nothing prevents the petitioners-appellants to approach the temple for appropriate orders for allotment of land other than the land, which is purchased by the fourth respondent. We do not see any ground to interfere with the said order. The Appeal, therefore, is dismissed. No costs.
